

Year 7 MFL: Key concepts and skills

To succeed in MFL at Tring there are a range of key concepts and key skills that you must master as your progress through Key Stage 3.

Refer to this sheet often and use it to help you with your homework and assessments: it is your guide to becoming a master linguist!

 Listening A good linguist can understand and pick out key information from a spoken passages	You can understand words said in a variety of accents.	You can identify key information from full spoken sentences.	You can pick out the main points and details from a spoken passage.	You can use context to help you understand information. You can recognise examples of different tenses.
 Speaking A good linguist can produce the language with confidence and fluency	You can say simple sentences with accurate pronunciation.	You can have a short conversation with someone else using accurate pronunciation.	You can connect your sentences with simple connectives such as "and" "but" and "also". You can include simple opinions such as "I love" and "I hate".	You can include a variety of opinions and connectives such as "because", "however" to justify and contrast your points of view. You can also rely on previous learned phonics to pronounce new words accurately.
 Reading A good linguist can understand and pick out key information from written passages	You can recognise and understand simple words	You can pick out and understand key points from a paragraph using familiar vocabulary.	You can identify key details from a variety of sources and use a dictionary to help you.	You can predict the meaning of unknown vocabulary using the context to help you.
 Writing A good linguist can produce written language with accuracy and fluency	You can write accurate full sentences using the pronouns "I" and "it" using simple connectives, such as "but" and "and".	You can create a paragraph using opinions such as "I like" and "I don't like", and simple connectives like "but", "and" and "also" in your work with few mistakes.	You can write detailed and accurate paragraphs using a range of connectives and using different pronouns including "I" and "he/she". You can produce, with minor mistakes, some examples of two tenses, opinions, adjectives and accurate word order	You can write detailed and accurate paragraphs using a wide variety of connectives and confidently use singular and plural sentences. You include clear examples of the past/present/future tenses, opinions and adjectives, using accurate word order.
 Translation A good linguist can translate accurately and with understanding of how both languages work	You can accurately translate simple words and short phrases both from and into the target language.	You can translate familiar sentences and short simple texts, including a range of adjectives, from and into the target language.	You can recognise and translate opinions with reasonable level of accuracy. You can translate into the target language using the correct conjugation of common regular verbs.	You can translate longer texts accurately from the target language into English, but with lower accuracy from English into the target language. You can translate both from and into the target language materials from authentic sources such as poems, stories, songs and magazine articles.

